FRANK E. LANGLEY, Publisher.

Dear Dr. Nature: After taking three months' of the water cure we cheerfully subscribe to the fact that we are cured—of water.

If hunger is the actuating motive that is driving hundreds of Mexicans into Carranza's army, the additions will not prove of great value. Men—Mexican men—do not offer up their lives in gratitude for food.

Rumania maintains her balance on top of the fence despite the mighty demonstration of Russian success at her very border, Czernowitz being less than 10 miles from the Rumanian line. The chances that Rumania will enter the war are very slim.

The possibility of war between the United States and Mexico is calculated to check to a certain extent the shipment of arms and munitions to the entente allies, because the United States government will put in a demand for large supplies. Thus a war between those two countries would serve the German purpose far better than blowing up a few scattered munitions plants throughout the United States.

CROSS-KELLY.

Williamstown Physician Went to Manchester for Bride.

A pretty wedding took place at St. Paul's church in Manchester at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning when Miss Anna Veronica Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kelly of Dorset, and Dr. Albion Arthur Cross of Williamstown, son of Mrs. Minnie Cross of Manchester, were married by Rev. Bernard Kelly, the pastor. The bride was gowned in white georgette crepe, made over white satin. She wore a veil with orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. The attendants were Miss Alice V. Kelly, twin-sister of the bride, who acted as maid of honor, and was gowned in orchid satin with silver lace trimmings and hat to match and carried a bouquet of lavender sweet peas; bridesmaids Miss Bertha L. Cross, sister of the groom, and Miss Beatrice Lemieux of Rutland, who were gowned in pink taffeta, wore caps of gilt lace and carried pink sweet peas. The groom was attended by Warren J. Cummings of Barre.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride in Dorset, where friends of the bride party to the number of 80 were dined. Dr. and Mrs. Cross were the recipients of many beautiful gifts, including cut glass, silver, linen and numerous other presents. After a honeymoon in New York Dr. and Mrs. Cross will be at home in Williamstown after July 1.

Out of town guests were: Mrs. Arthur Wright and son, John, Mrs. Barrett, Mrs. Walter Bullard, Miss Mary Condon, Miss Mae Crowe, Miss Gladys Staples, Miss Cora Leonard of Keene, N. H., Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carpenter, Leon Robillard and sister, Mrs. Thomas McLaughlin and John and Joseph, Wellwood of Rutland, Rev. A. C. Griffin and James Dalton of Wallingford, Mr. and Mrs. P. Dalton of North Bennington, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. McCoy and children and Mrs. Frank Kelly of Bennington, Misses Nell and Teresa Curley and William Daley of North Adams, Mass., Miss Cecile Conroy of Arlington, P. F. Passera of Williamstown.

WILLIAMSTOWN

A practice meeting of the Odd Fellows will be held Friday night, June 23. The Williamstown delegation attending the Pomona grange which met with the Northfield grange on the 21st included Mr. and Mrs. George T. Colby, Mrs. Ida Whitcomb, Mrs. Fred L. Poor, Mrs. Theron G. Williams, Mrs. A. A. Reed, Mrs. Eugene M. Reynolds and Miss Mildred Greason. A very enjoyable meeting and a good program is reported.

Miss Grace Trask of Brookfield was in town to attend the graduating exercises of the high school last week and remained for a few days as the guest of Miss Florence Hibbard.

Two Williamstown boys are members of Company H of Montpelier, Morton Martin, who joined about a year ago, and Harrison Martin, who has been for some time past the driver of a jitney between Barre and Montpelier, and who has enlisted since the order was issued mobilizing the National Guard.

Misses Myrl Hutchinson and Esther Call, members of the class of 1916 at the State Normal school at Castleton, have returned home. Miss Hutchinson coming on the 15th and Miss Call and her aunt, Mrs. W. H. Stewart, on the 20th, they having spent a few days in visiting Superintendent Tebbets of Fair Haven, who is a relative of Mrs. Stewart.

Jennie, the six-year-old daughter of Edward McGlynn, had an experience yesterday that she will not care to repeat. She started from the schoolhouse near W. E. Drury's for home at noon, and was found crying near Fred Flint's house about half past two. The telephone was used to get into communication with Mr. McGlynn's people, and it was not long before she was safe at home. It is supposed that she took the wrong road and followed it, thinking that she was going toward her home. Neither the teacher nor her mother was anxious about her, each supposing that she was with the other. When she was at Mr. Flint's she was from two and one-half to three miles from the schoolhouse from which she started.

John Greenleaf of Brookfield is stopping with Edward Royce and doing odd jobs for people in town when called on. A meeting of the Rural Good Luck club postponed last Saturday, will be held next Saturday, the 24th at 2 o'clock p. m., with Mrs. Leslie E. Williams.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the two friends who sat up nights with Mrs. Chynoweth during her sickness, also all those who sent flowers and for all other kindnesses.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Chynoweth.
 Walter Chynoweth.
 Dorothy Chynoweth.

TALK OF THE TOWN

A. T. Davis of Marshfield was a Barre business visitor yesterday.

Attorney W. R. McPeeters of Enosburg Falls was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

Ernest Letourneau, who is absent on a visit in Sherbrooke, P. Q., plans to return to Barre June 29, to reopen his restaurant.

Miss Mamie Minnie, who has been employed as a milliner in Morrisville, is passing a vacation at her home on Brooklyn street.

Thomas Tassie, who has made his home on West street for the past year, has moved his household goods to Enosburg Falls, where he has secured employment.

Mrs. E. Q. Webley of St. Albans was a visitor in the city yesterday while on her way to East Barre, where she is to remain for several days as the guest of Mrs. Fannie Connie.

Howard Walker of Grant avenue has completed the gathering of statistics for the annual school census. The returns have been filed with the city clerk for compilation, which will not be completed for a week.

Pupils of the sixth and seventh grades who wish to continue their work during the summer should apply for class admission on or before Friday, June 23; those of other grades, on June 24. Miss Spear's private school, 26 Jefferson street.

Remember, we can furnish you with all the best grades of coal, both hard and soft, and having bought the Arthur Martin wood business, have a large supply of all kinds of the very best dry, hard and soft wood. Telephone 450 and let Calder & Richardson fill your next order and judge for yourself.

The city court case of State vs. Edward Anderson, who is at liberty under bail of $500 for the alleged theft of lumber from a Westerville quarry, has been set for Monday morning, June 26, at 9 o'clock. State's Attorney F. E. Gleason will conduct the prosecution. The case was originally set for a hearing June 19.

Warren J. Cummings of Spaulding street returned to the city yesterday from Manchester, where he acted as best man at the wedding of Dr. A. A. Cross of Williamstown and Miss Anna Kelly of Dorset, which was celebrated in the Catholic church Tuesday morning. Dr. and Mrs. Cross are absent on a wedding trip and will not return to Williamstown for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Waterman and little son, Paul W. Waterman, jr., who have been residing in Cambridge, Mass., where the former is an instructor at the Volkman school, arrived in the city today for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Waterman of upper Washington street. Since returning from Cambridge several days ago they have been visiting Mrs. Waterman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Coburn, in Plainfield.

Among the visitors in the city yesterday and to-day were the following people: Mr. and Mrs. George E. May of Marshfield, Frank Pierce of Rutland, Dr. and Mrs. H. N. Jackson of Burlington, J. E. Sawyer of Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cole of Marshfield, B. F. St. Clair of Plymouth, N. H., M. C. Wallace of Burlington, Mrs. James E. Loudon of Springfield, F. H. Dewart of Burlington, G. F. Leonard of Rutland, Miss Elizabeth B. Tinker of Glen Falls, N. H., Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Soule of Fairfield, C. G. Martin of Burlington, C. F. Barnard of Westfield, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Mercom of Boston and W. A. Gage of Burlington.

A detail of street department laborers busied themselves for a time this morning in rescuing a vagrant dog from the subterranean caverns that flank the tortuous course of Potash brook as it noses its way through Pearl street and Depot square to the river. Every iron grating that furnishes an intake for surface water was crowded with small boys anxious to get a peep at the prisoner. Persuasion by whistle and call having failed, one of the street helpers betook himself to the mouth of the brook section running underground and finally restored the canine to terra firma.

Carrier park and streets contiguous were garrisoned by a strong force of Arabian patrolmen last evening, when for upward of two hours that wing of Mount Sinai temple that is to show its mottos at the Shriner's convention in Buffalo July 11 took themselves through a strenuous drill. Bagpipe and drum music made up the accompaniment for the marchers and some very spirited practice was in order until after 9 o'clock. It is said that the Arab patrol is approaching a fine degree of efficiency and is expected to make an exemplary showing in Buffalo. Throughout the winter indoor practice drills have been held at the capital.

Minor changes in the Central Vermont passenger service for the summer appear in the schedule that is to become effective Sunday, June 25. Outgoing trains leave as follows: 12:25, south, instead of 12:35 a. m.; 2:55 a. m., north, instead of 2:50; 8:25 a. m., north and south, no change; 11:55 a. m., south, no change; 3:25 p. m., north, instead of 3:30; 5:55 p. m., north and south, no change. Incoming trains arrive as follows: 1:40 a. m., from the north, instead of 1:42 a. m.; 4:25 a. m., from the south, instead of 4:05; 9:47 a. m., from north and south, no change; 1:05 p. m., from north, no change; 4:35 p. m., from south, no change; 7 p. m., from north and south, no change. Incoming Sunday trains arriving from the south at 10:05 a. m. and from the north at 9:05 p. m. are unchanged. The outgoing Sunday trains leave at 8:30 a. m. for the north, as formerly, and at 7:50 p. m. for the south instead of 7:55.

I know
 will heal this rash

I never worry if I have a little rash or other eruption break out—I just put on a bit of Resinol Ointment. That takes out the itching and burning instantly, and soon clears the trouble away. I learned of Resinol Ointment through our doctor prescribing it for my brother. Tom had been almost frantic with eczema for months but that ointment healed his skin like magic.

Resinol Ointment is sold by all druggists.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Visit second floor for bargains in garments at Vaughan's.

Leslie E. Wilson, a graduate from Goddard seminary, has gone to New Haven, Conn., to do office work in a munitions factory.

Mrs. William Halvosa and three children of South Main street left the city Wednesday afternoon for West Danville, where they are making a visit of several days with Mrs. Halvosa's sister, Mrs. Joseph Rogers.

Mrs. James E. Loudon of Springfield is staying at Hotel Barre while in the city to attend the commencement exercises at Goddard seminary, where her son, Hubbard Loudon, is to be graduated to-morrow.

A meeting of the Barre truckmen's union will be held at the association headquarters Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. As this is to be the only meeting of the month, every member is urgently requested to attend.

Miss Marjorie Forbes, a student at Goddard seminary, has completed her work for the year and went yesterday afternoon to her home in Wollaston, Mass., where she will spend the summer months with her people.

Charles L. Hoernle, director of athletics at Goddard seminary, and Mario Zanloni of North Main street left the city by automobile this morning for Boston, where they are to remain until Saturday, attending in the interim the "Wild day" celebration at the American league park.

At a meeting of the baseball team at Goddard seminary yesterday Arthur Shea of Dorchester, Mass., was elected captain of the 1917 baseball aggregation that is to represent the school. The election of a manager was deferred until the opening of school in the fall. She played a consistent game in the infield for Goddard this year and is regarded as a strong man. Goddard is to suffer but few defections through graduation this year, although the men who are finishing have been prominent on the diamond this year. They are: William A. Quinn, who is to attend Dartmouth next year, Preston Conner, Daniel Keefe and Max Wiley.

Northfield Falls Man in Bankruptcy.

Rutland, June 22—Joseph H. Bero of Northfield Falls, a laborer, filed a petition in bankruptcy with United States Clerk F. S. Platt yesterday. He has liabilities of $671.18 and assets of $1,423 of which all but $29 is claimed exempt.

GRANITEVILLE

About 30 Graniteville people were present at the graduation exercises of the commercial class at Goddard Tuesday night. Among the graduates were the following from this place: Helen Halligan, Agnes Carter, Edna Murphy, Daniel Bildeau and Ernest King, who was president of the class.

Several people from here are planning to leave some time this week on a visit to friends and relatives in Canada. Among those going are Mrs. A. McKenzie and sons, John and Donald, Mrs. Neil McKenzie and children, Miss M. B. Murray, Collin McAliver, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Campbell and daughters, Mabel and Margaret.

Reports from several of our young men who are at present working in Connecticut, show them to be doing well. Norman Campbell is visiting at the home of his parents on Cassie street.

Lawrence Graham has been idle for a few days owing to an injury to the fingers of his left hand. Leonard Pallas is working in the office of the Jones Bros. Granite Co. at Barre. Roscoe McIver, who is a cadet at Norwich university, was visiting at his home when the call came for troops. He immediately hastened to Northfield to report.

Phyllis Vercoe of Barre is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Roach.

Mrs. K. N. Campbell and her daughter, Margaret, have gone to Scotland, P. Q., for a visit.

Mrs. Anna Henry and son, Francis, of Barre, are visitors at the home of James Sheridan.

Malcolm McCaskill leaves to-morrow for Lincolnton, P. Q., where he will pass the summer. In the fall he intends to go West.

Kenneth McRae of Lincolnton, P. Q., is spending a few weeks with his son, Malcolm McRae.

Monica O'Hearn of Barre is the guest of Mrs. Mary Churchill.

Misses Teresa Miles and Blanche Reason are attending commencement exercises at Norwich university.

34 APPLICANTS FOR CITIZENSHIP

Of the Number 23 Were for First Papers and 11 for Second—Most of the Applicants Were from Barre.

Candidates for citizenship applied for first and second papers at a session of United States naturalization court in the court room at city hall yesterday from 2 until 9 p. m. Twenty-three applicants for first papers were heard by Clerk F. S. Platt and second paper applicants numbered 11. Most of the applicants reside in Barre, although there was a sprinkling of representatives from other towns. Not until 4 o'clock, when the whistles sounded, was there any considerable influx of candidates and from that hour until adjournment, the court did not find it necessary to mark time. Clerk Platt was accompanied to Barre by Deputy U. S. Marshal George Lackey and the usual quota of attaches.

First paper applicants were received in the following order: James Smith, Canada, White River Junction; Pedro Acebo, Spain, Barre; Orlando Ambrosini, Italy, Barre; Arvid Inval Blad, Norway, Barre; John A. Carlsson, Sweden, Barre; Walter A. Doubleday, Canada, White River Junction; James F. D.
